AN OLD SONG RESUND

Miss Mary bad, that is, she owned.

When no she went to school one day The lamb west togging after, Which circus did throw every kid 1 to a fit of laughter.

Eicking the cosset out of doors, The teacher spanked the friskers; But the lambkin cried in the cold outside

And the wind blew through its whishers Then all the blistered children asked, What makes the hamb love her, sir? "My dears," said he, "it looks to me Like a case of vice versa."

Now from this story you shall learn That there is many creature
That is above the power of love,
Unless it be a teacher. —Eugens Field.
